Wedding planning in Melbourne, VIC Here at Melbourne's Wedding Planner we are a Melbourne based multi-tasking planning, styling and event hire team. Let's be honest here, a wedding takes a whole lot of time and work (on average around 250 hours to plan). We are here to guide or even take over the process for you. With our love for organization and eye for detail we will coordinate and match the perfect suppliers for you. Our amount of involvement in your day is completely up to you, we can do anything from on the day coordination to planning and coordinating the entire day! Through passion and experience, we will capsulize your personal style and evolve it into a unique event that will wow your guests. With an experienced stylist/interior designer at your call, anything is possible. This gorgeous process is our FAVOURITE part! Anything from ceremony hire, to handcrafted backdrops, flower walls, centerpieces, signs and SO MUCH MORE! Here at Melbourne's Event Planner we are thrilled to help with any part of your event process. We do anything from sourcing to styling, creating, planning and event hire. Our events range but are not exclusive to the list on the right. If your event is not in the categories on the right, please do not hesitate to contact us for more information. We would love to hear about your big day as we understand each couple is special and unique. Book in an appointment so we can transform your wonderful ideas into reality.
