Bed and breakfast in Sydney, NSW Forsyth is a delightful bed and breakfast establishment, a “piece of inner-city serenity”, nestled between Glebe Point Road and Blackwattle Bay on Sydney Harbour, located 3 km from the city and 20 minutes drive from the airport. Forsyth maintains its exterior Victorian façade and has been renovated so that it “unfolds into a double-storey surprise of spacious understated elegance”. Forsyth offers two spacious guest rooms, both located upstairs, each with a queen size bed (single/double occupancy), reverse cycle air-conditioning, cable television, and free wi-fi. Blackwattle has a separate television / reading space and en-suite bathroom, and “a circular porthole offsets the angular ceiling and gives a bird’s eye view of the street”. Rozelle offers a full size bathroom (with double shower, bath and bidet) and a private balcony with views out towards Anzac Bridge and the city. In good weather, breakfast is served outside in the Japanese courtyard garden, alternatively in the dining room with its cathedral ceiling. Forsyth BnB offers its guests arriving or departing from the airport and the Overseas Passenger Terminal, pick & drop off services. This service is convenient, time and cost effective particularly for guests arriving in an unfamiliar city. To avoid disappointment, please make your request at the time of booking. We are conveniently located, as Glebe is a City of Sydney village suburb, close, within 3 kilometres, to all the major tourist icons, such as the Opera House, Harbour Bridge the Rocks , Botanical Gardens, Circular Quay ferry terminus, Darling Harbour, the Sydney Fish markets and city centre shopping.
