Arts & Crafts Retailers in Katherine, NT Territory Craft Katherine is a not-for-profit community organization that supports and promotes contemporary craft in the Katherine District. There is opportunity for professional development and encouragement in active participation in crafts at all levels, as well as opportunities to exhibit crafts at various exhibitions throughout the year. It also provides workshop facilities and a resource library for those who wish to pursue a new craft or read up and find some new ideas of their current craft. Our workshops are intended mostly for adults but we offer some offered especially for children and young teens. Past workshops have included quilting, photography, sewing for beginners, cake decorating, among others. For our members, we host up to five exhibitions per year where they can show off their creativity and sell some of their exhibits to the greater public. When the community assists to these exhibitions, our members can strengthen their ties to the community as well as our ties within our artisans.
