Wedding Planning in Sydney, NSW Audrey & Angus Weddings and Events is a specialized wedding planning consultancy founded by Lauren Janssen (Harrison) based in Sydney. Built on a foundation of meticulous planning, thoughtful styling, and a personal commitment to our clients, the approach to every Audrey & Angus Event is simple, 'we plan with experience and style'. Audrey & Angus is a personalized wedding planning service. Lauren will become your silent Bridesmaid throughout the process and take the time to get to know you, hear about your love story, discuss your vision and show you how to share it with your family and friends on your wedding day. With a high level of attention to detail, calm demeanor and passion for creating memorable and enjoyable celebrations, Lauren will guide you, advise you, and offer professional opinions to ensure your wedding or event is seamlessly executed from our first meeting to the final farewell. Each event is formulated to be a unique experience for our couples and their guests. Our role is to carefully align you with the most suitable and reputable wedding vendors that will best complement your defined wedding style – the result is a beautifully executed, memorable and joyful celebration.
