Myhealth Sydney CBD

151 Castlereagh Street
Sydney, NSW 2000
Australia

Doctors in Sydney, NSW Myhealth's vision is to be premier in providing quality medical care to patients. We support our compassionate doctors caring for patients in the comfort of modern, friendly, conveniently located medical centers. The first Myhealth Medical Centre opened in Baulkham Hills in 2007 founded by a group of dedicated General Practitioners.Myhealth has since grown to over 30 centres across 3 states. Many medical specialists and allied health practitioners have joined to provide holistic care to patients including nurses, pathology collectors, physiotherapists, psychologists, dieticians, podiatrists, dentists, and radiologists. Our GP's exercise clinical autonomy to deliver their best professional care to patients facilitated by Myhealth's support team.Our GPs and GP partner(s) collaborate with our evolving supportive management team which harnesses collective professional knowledge to deliver better GP and patient satisfaction. We actively invest in the future of healthcare, performing research and development into computer software, systems and doctor training. At Myhealth, the benefits of growth and development are shared by doctors and patients. We invite all patients, doctors and allied health medical practitioners to experience the Myhealth difference.

Visit Website
Email Friend