Graphic design in Sydney, NSW Made Agency specializes in branding, design and marketing communications. Independent in both thought and size, we believe by working together great results can be achieved. Locally and globally we work around the clock to produce work for what matters most: Your brand and your business. Whether you are a start-up or a long running, iconic brand, we want to show you the Made Agency difference: Branding excellence with authentic, personal service. Contact our team today to discuss your requirements for graphic design, branding, strategy, digital, print, production, content creation, photography, visuals and media. Together we can increase your brand's awareness, conversions and grow your customer base and business. At Made we work closely with our clients to deliver strategic solutions that drive engagement. Specializing in property as well as luxury and retail communications, we have developed multi-platform campaigns for some of the biggest brands in Australia, including Alex Perry, Belle Property, Ferrari, Ferrari Maserati Sydney, Hilton Hotels, CBRE, Colliers, NG Farah, FKP, Novati, Parkview, Percy Marks, and Oxford Real Estate. Made ensures that each project is delivered above expectation. As previous Creative Director for Belle Property, Made's Director, Richard Stenlake developed and implemented Belle's award-winning brand evolution including establishing the style guide for advertising and project marketing. Made strives to continue to deliver innovative and intelligent creative with bespoke client service.
