Art School in Sydney, NSW Billy Blue produces creative thinkers who can do - giving you the chance to acquire the relevant design skills, collaborate with the design industry's leading talents, and gain practical experience along the way. We insist that our students challenge convention and go against the status quo to unlock a world of inspiration and opportunity where imagination is your secret weapon. Your specialist education is delivered by designers, for designers. Tapping into your career potential, and opening your mind to what is possible, is what excites us most. We passionately believe that design can change the world and that skilled, connected problem-solvers have an important role to play. We celebrate innovation, entrepreneurship, intelligent solutions and the rise of the change-agent who can lead and think in new ways. As a Billy Blue student you will discover how to think creatively to generate great ideas and outcomes for the real world - across brands, products, systems, environments and the magic world of storytelling. You will enter a dynamic and exciting space where ideas, artistry and communication collide and multiply. Where hard thinking and persistence meet craft and skill, to build great brands, campaigns, entertainment, interactions, spaces or wearable products.
