Restaurant in Sydney, NSW Tetsuya's Restaurant is located in the center of Sydney at 529 Kent Street. Tetsuya Wakuda refurbished an heritage-listed site, with influences of traditional Japanese-inspired style, to create a serene dining enclave in the city. Tetsuya's serves a degustation menu. The degustation is unique, based on the Japanese philosophy of using natural seasonal flavors, enhanced by classic French technique and utilizing the freshest possible ingredients. Tetsuya designed his own on-site "test kitchen" within the restaurant to enable him to create the constantly evolving and inspiring dishes on which he has built his esteemed international reputation. Tetsuya's offers one of Sydney's most comprehensive wine lists and our sommeliers will, upon request, match the dishes with wine available by the glass. The restaurant offers four main dining areas overlooking an exquisite Japanese garden, with private yet atmospheric rooms for larger groups. Every room features pieces from Tetsuya's eclectic art and ceramic collection, from delicate Japanese porcelain to bold Australian sculptures. Please note that for safety reasons and for the comfort and convenience of other guests, Tetsuya's is unable to cater for children under 8 years of age. When making a reservation, we would appreciate it if you would respect our policy.
