Restaurant in Sydney, NSW Zahli Restaurant is the best modern Middle Eastern dining experience in Sydney. Nestled in Elizabeth Street Surry Hills, we have created a unique environment and contemporary menu of the finest Lebanese cuisine. We are also available for a party and hosting an event. Contact us for catering at your event. We will serve your guests with a memorable Middle Eastern cuisine experience. You may well have been to a Lebanese restaurant before and have tried Middle Eastern cuisine. But trust us, nothing is quite like Zahli. Our name comes from a beautiful area in Lebanon where the Bardouni river flows from Mount Sannine. Amongst other things, Zahli is steeped in the tradition of Lebanon's famous mezza and on warm evenings there is nothing finer than dining outdoors at one of the excellent restaurants that line the river banks there. Wine and poetry flow in equal measure – there have been many poets and writers born in Zahli and some of the best wines and araks in the region originate in this small area. Here at Zahli in Elizabeth Street, Sydney CBD, we have brought that experience to life. Our Lebanese restaurant will transport you to the banks of the Sannine on a warm night. We have created an environment, atmosphere and menu that is a modern take on Middle Eastern food. We are obsessed with delivering excellence – in taste, service, experience and memories. You won't find clichés here – our chef and his team take the traditional as their starting point and fast-forward to fresh Australian dishes packed with flavour. You may well have been to a Lebanese restaurant before. But none of them were quite like Zahli. We are also available for a party and hosting an event.
