Venue in Goolwa, SA The CURRENCY CREEK INN was built in 1842 and traded until 1880 at which time it was converted into a grand residence and renamed KINGSBROOK. Looking back on the 20+ years that we have had Kingsbrook, we realized that with no grand plan one thing just lead to another. The first thing we did was build big walls to keep the tourist out, now we welcome them, hospitality is the properties new phase of life. We would like to have you at our Restaurant! Our "Cittaslow" approach of freshly created meals in our casual relaxed atmosphere adds new meaning to a long leisurely lunch. Our blackboard menu which changes weekly has modern Mediterranean a-la-carte cuisine accompanied by a wood fired masonry oven creating traditional pizza, herb & garlic bread, clay pot dishes, Roasts and other delicious fair. Our own organic garden and free range chooks supplies much of our needs with choice Fleurieu produce, fresh seafood and other local fare complete the menu. The restaurant has full bar facilities including local and imported beers, spirits, soft drinks as well as our own. Kingsbrook offers four accommodation suites, located in the house compound within the walled gardens and outbuildings. The Coach House has three suites, the Loft which is the entire upper floor and below we have the Livery and the Stable with a shared joining loggia. The Loft has a kitchenette, queen bed, 2 French day beds in a large open plan room, ensuite, TV, heater, fan - Sleeps 4. The Stable has kitchenette, queen bed, ensuite, bath tub, TV, heater, fan - Sleeps 2. The Livery has kitchenette, queen bed, ensuite, twin shower, TV, heater, fan - Sleeps 2.
