Bed & breakfast in Katherine, NT Boasting an incredible outdoor pool that's ready to use year-round (although we recommend no to in the winter!), Maud Creek Country Lodge is located in Katherine and offers comfortable and clean accommodations for every visit you might need to make to Katherine. We provide fully equipped rooms with a built-in mini-kitchen with a refrigerator. We also have laundry services available, wi-fi and every other essential you might need to make your stay comfortable and enjoyable. Our staff aims to keep the rooms tidy, clean and especially cozy so that you feel at home in every visit. Our privileged location will give our visitors easy access to most of Katherine's hot spots, including the city centre, museums, art galleries as well as Top Didi Cultural Experience and art Gallery. We are also a short car ride away from the Katherine Country Club and Katherine Hot Springs where you will be able to enjoy a relaxing spa day or a sporty evening. Our readily available local knowledge may come in handy if you're having doubts about which places to go or what to do around Katherine, and we are also willing to arrange taxi drives or airport pick-up as needed.
