Motorcycle Training in Perth, WA Elite Motorcycle and Driver Training has been operating in Perth since 2001 and has successfully trained and licensed thousands of motorcycle riders and drivers from all over the state. When choosing a professional driving instructor or driving school, remember to consider more than just the price of lessons. Elite offers the following: A planned training program, Structured lessons where the instructor will show you what to do, explain what is required in a way you easily understand and then let you practice at your own pace; Feedback on how you are doing; Tips for correcting bad habits and mistakes; Homework and exercises for you to practice when you drive and ride with other people; and A quick review of your progress at the beginning and end of each lesson. We provide the highest quality of learner driver training and are committed to giving each student the individual attention they require to successfully equip themselves with sufficient skills to obtain their Western Australian driver's licence and drive safely on the road. Elite services all Transport Licensing Centres and surrounding suburbs including Mirrabooka, Midland, Cannington, Fremantle, Joondalup, Kelmscott and Rockingham, and we operate 7 days a week from 6am to 6pm.
