Australia

Cinema in Perth, WA Cinema Australia is an online space dedicated to the support and promotion of Australian made films through independent news, reviews, features and interviews. Cinema Australia stands alone in film media as the only website in the world solely dedicated to Australian films and the people who make them. Along with our website – which is available across multiple platforms – Cinema Australia has a strong social media following made up of filmmakers and film enthusiasts alike. We've formed strong relationships with many up-and-coming directors, actors and producers who trust us to share exclusive news about their films and reach appropriate target audiences. We run regular, well-received features including 'First Looks', 'Meet The Cast', 'Trailer of the Day' and 'The Crowdfunders' as well as many exclusive articles written by short form, long form and documentary filmmakers. Cinema Australia recently launched the Cinema Australia Podcast which is available via our website, SoundCloud and iTunes. Recent guests include Radha Mitchell (Looking For Grace), Matt Day (Muriel's Wedding), Simon Stone and Odessa Young (The Daughter), Alex Proyas (Dark City) Max Cullen (The Great Gatsby) and many others. We strive to continue to grow the Cinema Australia brand to benefit Australian films, filmmakers and industry professionals. Cinema Australia is actively involved in the WA and national film community working alongside established brands like Revelation Perth International Film Festival, CinéfestOZ, NextGen, Peninsular Short Film Festival, Made in Melbourne Film Festival, Melbourne Documentary Film Festival and Queensland's Capricorn Film Festival.
