Zoo in Dubbo, NSW The entry fee includes two consecutive days' admission, to give you ample time to explore all the Zoo has to offer. Taronga Western Plains Zoo is open every day of the year, including Christmas Day. Taronga Western Plains Zoo is located in Dubbo, in central west New South Wales. The Zoo is home to hundreds of animals from around the world and consists of free access Visitor Plaza and a 6km circuit that meanders through natural bushland and around large open style exhibits. Whether you fancy getting up close to a big cat, dropping in on the Meerkats at meal time, or learning why Hippos are such good swimmers, our keeper talks and animal encounters offer visitors truly special experiences with our amazing animals. Have you ever wanted to see how you measure up against the tallest resident at the Zoo? Giraffes in Focus is an exhilarating encounter offering visitors the opportunity to personally feed and photograph these magnificent creatures from the Zoo's Giraffe Boardwalk. Take an audio tour around the Zoo with the Safari Audio Tour! Learn more about the amazing animals that call Taronga Western Plains Zoo home, and the work we are doing to protect them and their wild habitats. The Safari Audio Tour is available as a free download, or alternatively, you can borrow a copy for your car when you arrive at the Zoo.
