

Nino Brown

Sydney, NSW 2000
Australia

DJ in Sydney, NSW Nino Brown is a DJ that needs no introduction. Forging a career through hardwork, showmanship and talent, Nino Brown has succeeded in areas many could only dream of. Regularly appearing at clubs around Australia, and South East Asia, Nino Brown brings hype and entertainment to any venue with his unique party rocking sets featuring exclusives from some of the world's hottest entertainers. It's this originality that has seen the DJ climb to the top of his game and share the stage with artists such as Jay-Z, Rihanna, T-Pain, Chris Brown, Nelly, Jason De Rulo, Pia Mia, T.I. Ne-Yo, Pitbull and Snoop, plus tour the country as the official DJ for one of Australia's most popular artists Tim Omaji. There isn't a single urban DJ in Australia that can say they have participated on all levels of DJing at the level Nino Brown has. His work ethic, innovative concepts and original club shows have set a high standard for many to follow. As he continues to set trends and break records around the country, it's only a matter of time before Australian audiences will walk away from a Nino Brown show with a big smile, ultimate satisfaction and an eagerness for him to grace their favourite venue again. And regardless of where he is around the globe, Nino Brown is happiest when he is behind a set of turntables rocking the crowd in a way only he knows how. You can catch Nino on air every Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday night on The Edge 96.1, every Friday night nationally on The Drop on Austereo, every Sunday night on Mai FM in New Zealand, plus Nino is the official DJ on Supreme Clientele Radio on worldwide radio station Dash Radio which airs every Wednesday night in the USA (Thursday morning in Australia).
