Wedding Supplies in Dingley, VIC We are The Wedding Emporium, Australia's online destination for all things gorgeous and wedding-related – at amazing prices! If you thought you couldn't afford a designer look for everything from your invitations to your ceremony décor to your favours, think again! We offer a wide range of absolutely stunning accessories and DIY supplies, so you can create your own dream wedding without the inflated price tag. With thousands of beautiful designs in stock – plus custom order options, of course – there's something for every bride and groom. The best part about shopping with us is that you can get great wholesale prices, without ordering way more than you actually need, meaning you get true value for money. Having a small wedding, and don't need many wedding invitations? No worries – order per invitation with us and save. Just want the one wishing well? Don't pay more when you order here. Want to make sure you've got plenty of organza bags, favour labels or personalised chocolate bars for every guest? We'll make sure you get the look and quality you're after, without the standard wedding markup. We encourage you to explore the whole range, to get a feel for what we could bring to your big day. If you've already got an idea of the style you want, you can browse by theme or colour. To see what other couples have done and to stay up to date with the latest news and special offers, make sure to check out our Facebook page.
