Caravan Park in Adelaide, SA Set right on the beach in Kingston Park (Tulukutangga), in an amphitheatre setting overlooking the crystal waters of Gulf St Vincent, our Adelaide caravan park with its central location (only 17 kms from the Adelaide CBD or 10 minutes from Glenelg), makes it the ideal location to sit back, relax and simply soak up our memorable beachfront location, or is the perfect base to explore everything Adelaide and the surrounding areas have to offer. Our beachside caravan park offers a range of Adelaide accommodation options, from 2 bedroom Oceanview & Waterview Villas, both with direct ocean views, to open plan cabins. There is also a myriad of caravan and camping sites to suit all types of travellers. With a fully equipped camp kitchen, modern BBQ areas, clean amenity blocks and special access bathroom, we're the perfect Adelaide caravan park for your relaxing family holiday. You can also feel the ocean breeze from any one of our cabins or sites! Enjoy our surrounds – take a dip in the ocean, stroll along the beach, walk the many trails of the coastal reserve surrounding our property while admiring the native flora and fauna - this reserve also includes the Tjilbruke Monument & Lookout which marks the beginning of the Dreamtime Trail. Take the coastal walking track to historic Glenelg, the birthplace of South Australia, for a spot of shopping or visit the Seacliff Surf Club or Seacliff Beach Hotel for a yummy meal. Brighton Jetty is an easy two kilometre stroll away.
