Costumes & Formal Wear in Melbourne, VIC From humble beginnings in Ormond, Melbourne, with a stock of five dinner suits bought with money borrowed from his Aunt, Brian Ferrari could never have envisaged that his fledgling business would one day be a part of so many families' special occasions. Ferrari Formalwear, still owned and operated by the Ferrari Family, has reliably delivered quality formalwear and service for forty years to over 1 MILLION customers in South Australia, Western Australia and Victoria. The knowledge gained from being at the forefront of formalwear fashion in Australia for so long has enabled Ferrari Formalwear to be the market leader in terms of choice, quality, fit and value. Our experience and research into garment technology, assembly, and finishing, guarantees the best possible product for your special occasion, and with our extensive work with designers worldwide we have developed the most stunning range of formalwear available in Australia. At Ferrari Formalwear we believe in only sourcing the very best garments for use within our business. We have seen the cheap knock-offs and inferior makes come and go and therefore only use the most trusted manufacturers in Australia, as our company has been built on a tradition of quality and reliability. Our commitment is to work with our manufacturers and designers to come up with the best product available for the formalwear hire market without compromising make, cut or fabric. We are constantly travelling and in contact with the largest formalwear manufacturers in the U.S, Europe and Asia to ensure we are up to the minute for the latest big thing. Add to that our 43 years' experience in tracking the reliability of different makes and fabrics, an ongoing stock replacement program and you are guaranteed the best result for your special occasion.
