Building Society in Launceston, TAS B&E Personal Banking is a leading Tasmanian financial institution (building society) with more than 30,000 clients, eight branches statewide and more than $700 million in assets. We offer a comprehensive and competitive range of banking products and services designed to meet all your personal banking needs – from term deposits and savings and internet cash management accounts through to home loans, personal loans and general insurance. Together with a statewide branch network, online banking and dedicated Client Service Centre, you'll be pleasantly surprised at what B&E can offer you. As a customer-owned financial institution, our focus is on providing value to our customers, not profit for shareholders, ensuring that we can provide you with a range of products and services that are simply great value. We're committed to happy, healthy communities and support a wide range of community events and activities which promote and encourage positive health outcomes for all Tasmanians. We've been around since 1870, making us Australia's oldest building society. We've successfully traded through good times and bad, and we continue to go from strength to strength. At B&E we see every Tasmanian as an important person. That's why we'd like to get to know you, to understand you, so we can give you the best service and the right banking products for you. We're proud to say that we are a 'conservative' financial institution. It's this approach that ensures our exposure to risk is minimal and that we are in excellent shape. If you want to know more about what we can offer you, call 1300 306 716 or visit your nearest branch to discuss your personal banking needs with our team.
