Hotel in New Farm, QLD An elegant, traditional Queenslander with timeless architecture — enjoy a luxurious stay in this Brisbane boutique Guest House. From the moment you are greeted by your hosts, Heal House is a unique experience to be savoured. With attention to detail at every turn, from the wide verandahs with their inviting reading nooks, to the beautifully appointed suites and relaxing and stylish living areas, nothing has been left to chance. Breakfast is served daily either in the breakfast room or the verandah and includes locally-sourced produce to create a mouth-watering start to the day. Each of the three guest suites have their own beautifully appointed ensuite featuring granite tiles, custom vanities and premium amenities, giving you the chance to relax and unwind in five star luxury. Demand for boutique accommodation at Heal House is high and there are only three, luxuriously-appointed suites on offer, so please book early to avoid disappointment. Included in the room rate is secure WiFi, Foxtel in each room, air-conditioning, complimentary non-alcoholic mini-bar, and limited off-street parking is available for small and medium cars. Access to Heal House is via a set of stairs and due to the heritage nature of the property we are unable to accommodate wheel-chairs, children under 16 years of age or animals. Also, due to the quiet residential position Heal House is not available as a party space and loud music is not allowed at any time. Please note that the hosts do live on-site. Heal House, boutique Guest House is a smoke-free zone and smoking in the suites or living areas prohibited. For those guests that enjoy smoking, the verandahs are available.
