Art Gallery in Wentworth Falls NSW Lovers of fine art adore the Falls Gallery, which is rated as excellent on TripAdvisor. Falls Gallery specializes in fine art on paper and ceramics, and features the artwork of a dozen artists. Browse a selection of the oil paintings, etchings, monotypes, and ceramics right on their web site, or visit in person to appreciate the beauty of these fine works of art. Founded in the Blue Mountains in 1990, the gallery offers an ever-changing exhibition of works on paper and ceramics by established and emerging artists. Artists include Garry Shead (figurative painter), Wendy Sharpe (one of the most acclaimed and awarded artists in Australia), Ian Smith (studio ceramics), Anne Smith (oil paintings, etchings, and monotypes), Bernard Ollis (painter of people), John Olsen (one of Australia's major painters), Arthur Boyd, Max Miller, Charles Blackman, Allan Peascod, Jane Barrow, and Peter Rushforth. Works are available for viewing and purchase, but do contact the gallery to confirm availability. The Falls Gallery is located in Wentworth Falls, 100 kilometers west of Sydney GPO. Test. It is a one-hour drive along the M4 motorway, and is two kilometers south along Falls Road. The gallery is open Wednesday through Sunday and on public holidays.
