Bed and Breakfast in Brisbane, QLD Heritage listed Lucerne on Fernberg in Brisbane, Queensland provides bed and breakfast and self-contained accommodation close to the Brisbane city central business district (CBD). Lucerne on Fernberg is located near the heart of the Brisbane city. The two self-contained, air conditioned cottages, set in half an acre of gardens, are close to cafes, restaurants, theatres, transportation and Lang Park (Suncorp Stadium), the fabulous rugby league football stadium. Enjoy the heritage listed, luxury accommodation at a reasonable price. Lucerne was established between 1859 and 1862 and is believed to be the oldest privately owned residence in Brisbane, Queensland. The property was named Lucerne in the mid-1860s, after the town and lake in Switzerland. The property is dominated by several large trees and its owners continue to re-plant the gardens in the cottage style evident in early photographs of Lucerne. The accommodation includes: the refurbished Coach House, which comprises a queen-size bedroom, sitting room, ensuite bathroom and kitchenette; and the renovated Rose Cottage, which has similar facilities to the Coach House but is also accessible by wheelchair and is suitable for persons with limited mobility. Lucerne on Fernberg accommodation is within easy walking distance of Lang Park (Suncorp Stadium) and the restaurants of Paddington, Milton and Rosalie, and just over 2 km to the Brisbane city centre. It is also centrally located to the nearby Wesley, Brisbane Private, Mater and Royal Brisbane Hospitals and down the road from Government House. The owners of Lucerne on Fernberg and your hosts during your accommodation stay are Helen and Brian.
