School in Brisbane, QLD St James is a co-educational Catholic Secondary School in the Edmund Rice Tradition. It was established in 1868 by Catholic lay teachers and the administration of the school was taken over by the Christian Brothers in 1893. The first lay Principal was appointed in 2002 and the College now falls under the auspices of the Northern Region (Qld) of Edmund Rice Education Australia. It is now staffed by lay staff. The school's philosophy is based on Gospel values and the tradition of Edmund Rice, the founder of Christian Brothers. This philosophy is to integrate faith, life and culture in an environment of tolerance, pride and respect for individual worth. Christian values are woven into all areas of school life. The happiness of the individual, whatever his/her achievement, is of vital importance. School rules exist as in every community but students, as they mature and progress through the school, are assisted to develop self-discipline and personal responsibility. St James is located in the centre of the city of Brisbane only a short distance from Central Station and within walking distance of city bus routes. Because of the proximity to the city, students of St James are able to link to many industry, art, cultural and sporting venues.
