University in Toowoomba, QLDThe University of Southern Queensland (USQ) has forged a reputation as one of Australia's leading providers of on-campus and online (distance) education programs in Australia. With more than 75 percent of students studying via distance or online, our delivery of external education resources continues to lead the way.USQ proudly supports, values, and respects the wide variety of cultural identities, languages, and beliefs within the university. We work to provide information to all members of USQ, as well the local and international communities. USQ endeavours to provide a safe learning environment where all students and staff can openly share ideas and respectfully express their opinions - regardless of their culture identity or religious affiliation. By acknowledging and respecting our diversity, we are able to strengthen our collaborative research efforts, and compliment USQ's teaching and learning experience.USQ's mission is to lead in economic and social development through higher education and research excellence. Our community-centred values are grounded in our regional heritage, while our vision is to excel within a global context. At USQ we are united by our three core values of Respect, Integrity and Excellence. Through our actions we live these values and it is against them that we hold ourselves and others accountable.
