Comedy Club in Canberra ACT Comedy ACT is the place to go for the Canberra stand-up comedy scene. The club is run by the Canberra comedy community of local comedians and show producers, and has been active since 2009. Canberra's longest running comedy room -- Comedy Club @ The Civic Pub -- has quickly become Canberra's most popular comedy venue, selling out regularly since it hit the scene in 2009. Comedy Club features the best local and national stand-up comedians each month, and has proven to be a huge hit with audiences. Situated in the city, patrons are able to eat at the popular bistro downstairs before enjoying drinks up pub prices upstairs. Tickets from $15 per show. Looking to book a comedian for your next event function? Corporate gig? Christmas Party? Bucks night? Sure we can do that.

Comedy ACT provides agency-like services to help local comedians get in touch with people who need comedians. Comedians, like regular people, have a great range of personalities and characters, and they'll help you find a comedian with with right character for your next event.
