Stadium in Canberra ACTGIO Canberra Stadium is an iconic sports venue in Australia, playing host to the famous Brumbies and Canberra Raiders. The stadium facility is primarily used for rugby league and rugby union games, and is located adjacent to the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra. With a seating capacity of over 25,000, the stadium also offers a range of spaces to accommodate a variety of events from small meetings to large conferences. You can host your next function in this world-class sporting venue, utilising the same catering and event organisation expertise used to host large-scale national and international events. GIO Stadium Canberra has a range of function rooms to accommodate a variety of events from small meetings to large conferences. Their team of experienced staff will deliver your next business meeting, training workshop, product launch, presentation, cocktail event or gala dinner with professionalism and diligence in a fun, unique environment. Set amidst native bushland and just minutes from the City, the function rooms at GIO Stadium boast unrivalled views of the playing field with ceiling to floor glass windows, providing each room with plenty of natural light. Why not do something different and organise a tour of the Stadium as part of your next function. You and your guests will gain an insight into the behind the scene operation of major sporting events and gain access to areas normally restricted to sporting and media officials. Follow this with cocktails and drinks in the players' tunnel or on the South Terrace open air area overlooking the football field, where you can showcase your presentation on the video replay board (big screen) for a truly memorable experience. For your safety, new security measures include increased bag searches and metal detection at entry points. Allow for extra time when entering the venue for all future events.
