Funeral services & Cemeteries in Mount Gambier, SA Losing someone you love can turn your life upside down. We offer our assistance in selecting a memorial to commemorate the passing of a loved one, and we understand that a family needs to take into account their cultural, religious and budgeting requirements before choosing a memorial. Monument designs can be classic or contemporary. We can assist you in your choice of a memorial, color of memorial and style of memorial and with your choice of wording for the inscription and embellishments. Our goal is to meet your needs and memorialize your loved ones. A.L. Nalty Memorials Pty. Ltd. is a family owned business started by Anthony Louis Nalty approximately 70 years ago. His son, Mark Joseph Nalty, is the current Managing Director. The staff at Nalty Memorials is exceptional – Mark believes sincerely “we have the best masons in the industry”, “we have the best fixers in the industry” and “we have the best letter cutters in the industry”. Our friendly and caring office staff can give guidance in purchasing a memorial. Our sales staff is not commissioned sales people. They are not aggressive in their sales – their weekly pay cheque is not bigger just because you signed an order with our firm. This means our clients are satisfied with our work and our staff aims to fulfill our client’s needs. Give us a call!
