Caterer in Braddon ACT Serving all your catering needs, The Edge Catering is your one-stop provider for food, beverage, and staff services. Affordable catering packages are available for morning and afternoon tea, lunch, lunch boxes, buffet packages, special occasions, board room, dinner, conference, cocktail parties, and drinks. The Edge Catering is the most popular catering company in Canberra! Owner and Executive Chef of The Edge catering, Oliver Buecher, has over 35 years experience in the catering world. From his early training in Germany, to international hotels in Switzerland, England, and Australia, he has prepared and served food of the finest quality. A well known presence in the Canberra catering community for over 25 years, this new venture is the realisation of his dream to offer the National Capital first class catering services. Backed by a team of qualified chefs working in a state of the art kitchen, Buecher's aim is to provide the Canberra catering market with complete gastronomical satisfaction. Food is prepared with only the freshest ingredients, observing the strictest hygiene and delivered straight to your door in a fully health-approved refrigerated van. The Edge Catering is able to accomodate all dietary restrictions (when received at least 72 hours in advance).
