Restaurant in Port Pirie, SA This family-owned restaurant has been in the business service for a long time, and our loyal customers and new visitors are proof of it: they always come back for more! This is a great spot for a quick counter meal, good basic food at very reasonable prices. Our customers are very loyal because our food is great and the attention could not be better. We offer a wide menu with food for every taste and family member, from the classic steak meal for the granddad to deliciously fried fish for the kids, here you can find something for every meal from breakfast to dinner. Our homemade sweets are a house staple and our clients are always asking for more of them. Ask for our delicious pies and coffee cakes to accompany your midday snack, tea or coffee with friends. We are well-known around Pirie and we pride ourselves on offering great value for money with a charming vintage location and great customer service.
