Motel in Kalgoorlie, WA After a full day exploring or working in Kalgoorlie – the historic gold mining capital of the Golden Outback, relax and enjoy a stay with us. Ideally located on Hannan Street, just a short distance from the Centre of Kalgoorlie, the Best Western Hospitality Inn Kalgoorlie offers spacious, affordable and well-appointed motel rooms with the quality assurance guarantee of being a member of Best Western - The World's Biggest Hotel Family. We offer comfort and country hospitality. Kick start your day with a delicious continental buffet or a freshly cooked to order breakfast. Later you may then like to cool off in the swimming pool, or just relax under the palm trees and enjoy a casual lunch in the attractive BBQ and pool area. Plan your next day's adventure over a quiet drink in our cocktail bar before moving into dinner in our new licensed, a-la-carte restaurant, Katherine Station – where we offer quality cuisine with a distinctly hearty outback Australian theme! We also offer a children's menu for children 12 years and under. Something for every palate. Whatever you choose, it's all made easy by our friendly, efficient staff at the Best Western Hospitality Inn Kalgoorlie. They are always on hand and happy to help you with information on tours, facilities available, and any questions you may have to make your stay with us enjoyable. You can collect Qantas Frequent Flyer points on all purchases. You can rest assured that our standards are second to none and we will offer you a personalized service to make sure your stay is as enjoyable as possible.
