Established in 1998, myOE supports traveling professionals with financial and immigration solutions to make the most of their earnings and their new location. It can be hard stepping off the plane in a new country – we know because we’ve been there too.

By joining myOE, you get the benefit of our years of experience living and working overseas. We know the cities, we know the job markets and recruitment agencies, we know the lifestyle. myOE is here to help you get the most out of your overseas experience.

When you join myOE, you become part of an international network, with contacts throughout the UK and the Asia Pacific. We support contract professionals with everything from compliant salary packages offering the best tax rate possible, to support with job hunting, accommodation and networking. With your own account manager and advice from our international tax experts, we’ll make sure you get off on the right foot.
