Pub in Perth, WADurty Nelly's was designed and constructed in Ireland by Irish architects, using genuine Irish materials. It was then disassembled, transported to Shafto Lane in the heart of Perth Western Australia and reassembled. In this sense, it is safe to say that Durty Nelly's is Perth's first and only genuine Irish pub. Durty Nelly's is divided into three distinctive sections, chosen to represent the culture and history of Ireland. The Brewery Bar: reflects ancient Brew house traditions, its design inspired by the original Guinness brewery at St James Gate, Dublin. The Victorian: is ornate and decorative, designed to emulate the nineteenth century Victorian era in which detail and quality craftsmanship went hand in hand with the philosophy that is as vital to please the eye as the palate. The General Merchant: takes its appearance from a traditional public house, reflecting a time when a pub would double up with all manner of other businesses: grocers, tailors etc. Durty Nelly's Irish Pub strives for the best possible food and service. The Irish management and staff are committed to quality, value and your complete satisfaction. Durty Nelly's hosts the happiest of happy hours every Monday through Friday, from 5-6pm. $8.50 pints of Guinness, Kilkenny & Magners, $6.50 house spirits, glasses of house wine and sparkling! Durty Nelly's Irish Pub is the perfect place to quench your thirst with their selection of beers, ales and stouts on tap. Reflecting brew house traditions as old as Ireland itself, the style found its proud inspiration at St James Gate in Dublin where Arthur Guinness first began brewing his renowned black beer.
