Doctor in Newcastle, NSW Newcastle Family Practice strives to deliver the most up-to-date, evidence-based medical care while still treating patients holistically, non-judgmentally and with utmost respect. From its humble beginnings 1992 with Dr Ryan as the Medical Director the practice started as a Women's Health Plus and family care clinic. In 1995 Dr Ryan took over the practice with a name change shortly after to Newcastle Family Practice which now has 9 general practitioners and 2 nurses. The clinic has also incorporated onsite Mental Health Nurse, Healthscope Pathology, psychologists, neuro psychologists and dietician services as part of its commitment to multidisciplinary healthcare. Located at 205 Hunter Street Newcastle. The Clinic's modern rooms are patient friendly and comply with professional standards of Accreditation which are the standards set by the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners. Aside from medical services, we offer some special services to meet your needs: Travel health – Patients require a doctors appointment and an appointment with one of our nurses. Our Registered Nurses have special training in travel medicine which is a Yellow Fever Accredited Practice. Sue and Lisa lead our "Newcastle Family Practice Travel Health" clinic to help you identify risks and how to manage them for your particular destination and planned activities. Care plans are created for those with chronic conditions such as diabetes and heart disease. A care plan is designed to meet your personal health needs and helps you manage your condition and reduce related risks. Our Registered Nurses and Allied Health Professionals can work in partnership with you and your GP to create your care plan.
