School in Bacchus Marsh, VICThe school aims to be a safe and caring environment which through its programs encourages students to be confident, self-aware, and able to contribute to their personal growth and are willing to be active and positive members of society. We wish to encourage within our students a strong sense of service which sees that a commitment to inclusion and a willingness to assist others is a vital component of developing a positive character and a strong society.The school seeks to develop a culture of achievement, which encourages staff and students to strive toward achieving their personal best. The ethos of the School is supported by a clear set of values and habits that we believe are critical for the development of the whole individual.These values and habits are promoted to students as valuable ways of giving their life direction: A commitment to excellence in all endeavors and a celebration of the achievements of all, A love of learning and the nurturing of enthusiasm or passions which students will want to develop throughout their life, A sense of self-discipline and personal responsibility, which respects the need for regulation and rules in any community, A commitment to the rewards and pleasures of hard work, A commitment to the welfare of all members of the community, A sense of fair play and A belief that a satisfied life is best achieved by a celebration of that which is positive rather than dwelling on the negatives.
