Café in Brisbane, QLD Run by two lovely ladies, Susannah Whitehouse and Candy Smith, Scout Cafe is a labor of love. This Spring Hill location will become your new coffee haunt, serving up Supreme beans from New Zealand and a rotating menu—refreshed every six weeks—of things like breakfast bagels and salads plus a couple of vegetarian offerings as well as something for all the sweet breakfast lovers. If you're looking for a cracking Brisbane cafe to enjoy your weekend, do come to Scout. Scout Café is a child-friendly café, where you can spend the morning or the afternoon in family without worries. Scout is open every day from seven in the morning, so you can start your day with an amazing and healthy breakfast, to four in the afternoon, after you grab a cup of tea or coffee with friends to relax after a long day. Whenever you come to our café, you will be able to relax while eating the most delicious food. Whether it is breakfast, lunch or tea you are grabbing, we will be more than happy to serve you. We offer you home-made food, full of that cozy flavor that will linger in your memory like a hazy spring day.
