The Party Parlour is owned and operated by us - Kim and Jodie. As sisters, we have combined our backgrounds in design, sales, marketing, business administration and most importantly motherhood and sisterhood to develop a business that we just love to be in.

By offering our products and ideas to you at the one location - our online store - it has made it quick and easy for you to find lots of great products and ideas for parties without even having to leave home. We hope you embrace this new way of shopping and invest a little time in getting to know our website.

Our hopes are that our products and party ideas allow you to design the party you have in mind for your child and that by taking some of the stresses out of the planning process, we help you to really enjoy celebrating the day with your child and their special guests.

Shop online for Australia wide delivery for the most gorgeous boutique party supplies including party invitations, party bags, party decorations, styling accessories and colour themed lollies and jars. Have fun creating a party theme just right for your baby shower, christening, 1st birthday, children's party, milestone
