Sydney & NSW Private Investigations has been established since 2006. We are based in the Sydney CBD. As Private Investigators Sydney wide we specialise in conducting surveillance investigations in Sydney however our services also extend throughout Australia.

Our team of highly skilled Investigators have the expertise to investigate your cheating husband, cheating wife or cheating partner being available 24 hours a day 7 days a week. With over 150 Investigators throughout Sydney, we can respond very quickly to any investigation requirement.

We also sell a range of Spy Products. We only have a limited range of Spy products because we wont sell you just anything to make a dollar like a lot of retailers out there, we will only sell the sort of high quality and reliable technology that our Professional Investigators would use in the field and that are going to get you the answers you need. This includes our Mobile Phone Monitoring software, GPS Tracker, Listening Bugs and Hidden cameras.
