Triumph Australia is an Australian company that provides quality and cost effective investigation services. We have over 140 Specialist investigators operating throughout Australia with additional contacts internationally, all managed with a broad range of both technical and administration support from our Sydney based Head Office.

Triumph Australia is the most technically advanced company in the Investigations Industry. We have adopted and embraced new technologies, systems and processes, all of which help us exceed your expectations in any matter. We have the latest technology in computerized search facilities including, online company searches, land titles, business names, telephone reverse searches, background checks, electoral rolls, bankruptcy, court action, credit default, land and property sales data and many others. We also have the most up to date surveillance and forensic tools to assist in any application.

Our vision is to remove the frustrations and complexity of any matter requiring investigation and open our customers' up to a world of new ideas, experiences, and opportunities as a result of the findings.

Every one of our investigators are highly qualified and experienced, government accredited, insured and operate under strict confidentiality agreements ensuring your total privacy. All Investigators have been positively vetted and hand-picked to form our elite team.
