Graphic design in Central Coast, NSW We are a web design agency, a graphic design company, an e-commerce designer, an offset & digital print supplier, a photographic business, a supplier of all promotional products. We're based on the Central Coast NSW and we help to grow and promote our client's business. It's important to our potential clients to understand how we're different and why they should choose Maximum Xposure. We're incredibly passionate about what we do. We strive to constantly improve and push boundaries. We want to continually surprise and delight our clients. We want to take the time to fully understand your business and achieve significant success for you. We're your first and last point of call with each and every project as we will manage each project for you allowing you the time to concentrate on your business. We don't cut corners. We keep you informed every step of the way. We don't pretend to be something we're not. Even though the business has only been around a seemingly short time, our experience with web design, graphic design, and photography, extends back to 1996 when we coded our first website design. A lot has changed in those 18 years and we pride ourselves on being on the cutting edge of technology and trends so we're able to provide our clients with the latest in design.
