

Studio Ink

Bendigo, VIC 3550
Australia

Phone: 03 5441 5991

Graphic Design in Bendigo, VIC Studio Ink is a creative agency dedicated to innovative brand building. Based in Central Victoria with a range of clients locally, nationally and internationally, Studio Ink is a small dedicated team delivering a complete suite of creative services and expertise combined with attentive personal service. Whether you are looking to create a new brand, bring an existing brand to life or communicate a core marketing message, Directors Leah Hartley and Dale Harris strive to deliver design that communicates. Our small, dedicated team provides a complete suite of creative, branding and graphic design services to a diverse range of clients. We enjoy working with a range of clients from a broad range of industries, from Australia and all around the world. We're proud to support local initiatives including Bendigo Blues & Roots Music Festival, Bendigo Cancer Support Group and the Bendigo Community Farmers' Market. At last, count our work has been featured in 23 industry publications. If you are interested in seeing us in print, you can check out a list of books featuring our work here. Our services include identity development, brand architecture & guidelines, stationery & print collateral, books & magazines, brochures & flyers, product & packaging design, retail environments & way-finding solutions, email & direct mail, press, tv & online advertising and web experiences.

Visit Website
Send Message
Email Friend

