Restaurant in Bendigo, VIC Smell the delicious smokiness of Bendigo's only Redgum char-grill and dedicated steak house, as we use our unique "cooking with wood" techniques. In the finest tradition of steakhouses across the globe, we use locally sourced meat and the very best in fresh, regional produce. Enjoy in-house and regionally prepared Charcuterie, beef carpaccio, organic lamb, or local chorizo styled sausage. Try our free-range pasture-fed porterhouse or smoked Wagyu. Meat is always the star of the show. The Woodhouse is Bendigo's only dedicated steakhouse, creating and maintaining a point of difference is of the highest priority. The menu is vast, famous for the signature regionally sourced Charcuterie selection, wood-fired gourmet pizza and a robust range of desserts. However, a true love is Wagyu beef provides diners with the ultimate showcase and selection of premium F1 Wagyu and Free Range Dry Aged beef, sourced from and both local and regional farms. The recipient of a variety of awards, The Woodhouse has been acclaimed by The Age Good Food Guide, Victorian Tourism Awards, Restaurant and Caterers Association Awards, Golden Plate Awards and others. The Woodhouse is a spectacular but rustic dining experience, with welcoming professional service. Enjoy a pre-dinner beverage in front of the open fire, with many craft beers and a great range of wines. The well-priced local drops round off this exceptional offering; chosen to match the delicious menu perfectly. The temperature controlled alfresco dining area, fully protected from the elements offers a choice of internal or external seating.
