Café in Shepparton-Mooroopna, VIC Traditional, home cooked thai food & specially selected coffee. Opened in 2004, The Last Straw Cafe focuses on creating an atmosphere where people meet to enjoy great food and fine coffee. We pride ourselves on providing earthy, traditional Thai food with fresh, locally produced ingredients. With our open kitchen we have created an environment where customers and staff engage on a personal level, which is part of the Last Straw culture. Each day there are 4 to 5 dish choices on the menu that varies daily. All dishes are made from the freshest ingredients that are sourced daily and prepared to order. As well as the food, we also roast coffee on site. We source high quality estate green beans from exotic origins. Each day we offer a different coffee bean origin or blend extracted in an antique coffee machine, bring the coffee flavours and characters of the work to your palette. The Last Straw is a solar passive design that is made from wheat straw bales and hand rendered with sand and lime. The thick rustic yellow render with 90 year old exposed saw-tooth trusses (from the Ardmona Cannery) and polished concrete gives the building an organic, wholesome feel while being very energy efficient. The décor with soft coloured tones has furniture made from recycled timber, set among retro laminex tables and chairs from the 60's, as well as a 1970's functional record player. Sprinkled around the venue are a collection of antique coffee brewing equipment and a state of the art commercial coffee roaster from Turkey. The open style kitchen is the engine room for preparing exotic Thai food made to order.
