Wedding Planner in Toowoomba, QLD Blue Willow is an innovative styling and events company. We are lovers of all things beautiful, and our passion is creating inspired, bespoke and above all - memorable weddings and events. We are impeccably organised, have an intricate eye for detail and bring a fresh perspective to your special occasions. We are based in Toowoomba, QLD and service the Southern Queensland and Northern New South Wales regions. The name Blue Willow was inspired by the ancient blue willow fine china that sat on the childhood home of wedding planner and fonder Annie Glover. It was an easy choice when deciding on what design elements inspired her - timeless and detailed. Her passion for wedding planning and styling came to the surface after planning her own nuptials throughout 2014 and 2015. Her wedding would soon feature in a number of bridal blogs and print productions, not to mention the coaxing she received from her loved ones throughout that special day "you should really do this for a living you know" - so she decided, she would. She loves everything about weddings, from the heart warming messages shared between the Bride and her Bridesmaids the morning of the big day, to seeing the Bride's reaction when she first lays eyes on her reception space. There really is nothing more heartwarming or memorable than a beautifully planned and styled wedding day.
