Bed and Breakfast in Geelong, VIC Barrabool Hills Retreat extends a warm invitation to experience some rustic, country-style Bed and Breakfast accommodation and hospitality near Geelong & only minutes away from Surf Coast. The Guest House, which resembles a Scottish cottage, is nestled in spacious grounds beneath Mt. Moriac, in the rolling Barrabool Hills. It is conveniently located near the gateway to the Great Ocean Road and only 16 km from Geelong, Bells Beach, Surf Coast, Torquay and 1 hour from Melbourne CBD. Barrabool Hills Retreat offers guests the opportunity to relax and enjoy the restful and tranquil atmosphere of a fine country house (B&B) & garden, surrounded by interesting works of art. If you are planning a special event, you have a perfect, quiet back-drop for entertaining and photographs. We offer a sophisticated and friendly service. There are plenty of comfortable spots to relax and un-wind after a long journey, with ambient views over the Waurin Ponds Creek and pretty garden, and also a cosy fireplace for cooler months. For the more energetic there is a landscaped multi-purpose grass court for tennis, pentaque and croquet. Barrabool derived its name from the Indigenous tribe which roamed the hills before European settlement.
