Pet Care in Geelong, VIC Welcome to The Dog House Pet Resort, Geelong and the Surfcoast's premier dog boarding kennel, located conveniently between Torquay and Geelong. Resort hosts, Mary-Ann and Barry O'Reilly, have created the ultimate luxury resort for dogs, where all guests receive the highest possible level of care and comfort. The Dog House has been architecturally designed for the benefit of its guests, with spacious sunny verandas, air conditioning for summer and cozy wood fires for winter. Outdoor play, toys, fun and cuddles are provided to all our guests daily. The Dog House truly is a luxury resort for dogs. We pride ourselves on providing the best care for your dogs. With a high staff-dog ratio, 24hour vet service and daily health checks. With three exercise sessions per day, and the option for a playtime upgrade, you can be sure your dog is getting all the exercise they need. The dog house is fully heated and air-conditioned, ensuring your pet enjoys the same comforts that they would receive at home. The O'Reilly family have been breeding and showing their own Rottweilers and West Highland White Terriers for the past 25 years. Their extensive experience includes veterinary nursing, previous proprietors of boarding kennels, cattery and a grooming and training facility. The next time you go away, leave your best friend with confidence in the experienced care of Mary-Ann and Barry O'Reilly at The Dog House Pet Resort.
