Lochinvar House

Maitland, NSW 2320
Australia

Bed and Breakfast in Maitland, NSWJust 2 hours drive from Sydney, surrounded by the Hunter Valley's finest wine growing area, Lochinvar House (1841) offers relaxing, elegant accommodation in an historic Georgian -Victorian residence on an 88 acre Hunter River estate. As with most Australian colonial homesteads the hallways are wide, the ceilings high and the rooms large and generously proportioned. Guest accommodation consists of 4 bedrooms in the homestead with Queen size beds and the original 2 bedroom cottage with its own sitting room and bathroom.The formal dining room provides a gracious setting for breakfast, or you may prefer the verandah overlooking Loch Katrine. Relive the splendour enjoyed by Australia's colonial gentry. Lochinvar House features 15ft ornate plaster ceilings, grand entrance and dining room, sitting rooms, spacious luxuriously appointed bedrooms, and an elaborate main bathroom with the largest bath you have ever seen.Relax in the spa by the pool, stroll amongst the gardens, walk around the 88 acres of farmland or just feel the endless space as you sit on the verandah with your favourite glass of Hunter wine. Set amongst the gently rolling hills of the Lochinvar district, Lochinvar House on Kaludah Estate invites you to relive the splendour enjoyed by Australia's colonial gentry.

Visit Website
Email Friend