Bed & breakfast in Sydney, NSW Bet's B&B is a big, clean, stylish, open-plan, two-level studio just 3.5km from Sydney's CBD. You have your own private entrance and everything is for your exclusive use. Generous breakfast provisions provided daily, free and fast WiFi, spotless and spacious bathroom, and complete laundry facilities. On arrival, we provide you with free Opal travel tickets (train, bus and ferry), detailed city maps and tourist brochures and some friendly advice on what to see, where to go, and how to get there. Bet's B&B is the perfect base to explore Sydney. It's close to public transport to the city – bus and lightrail – and conveniently located, just minutes from Annandale's shops, cafés and restaurants. Annandale is one of the closest suburbs to the city and one of the oldest. It's known for its vibrant atmosphere and residential diversity. Its wide tree-lined streets, lively shopping area and cosmopolitan character, give Annandale its friendly and quiet neighbourhood charm. Yet, the city is so close. You can see the city skyline from Johnston Street and be there by bus or lightrail in 20 minutes. From the studio, it's a 10-minute walk to Rozelle Bay from where you can catch the lightrail to the city, view the luxury yacht marina, the majestic Anzac Bridge and the world-famous Sydney Harbour Bridge.
